Through a mistake the name of Mrs. W. B. Crawford was left out of the Civic Club program published in yesterday's Chieftain. Mrs. Crawford gave an excellent reading on "The Value of Music in Education." Mrs. Crawford composed and dedicated the "Vinita Waltz," to the Civic Club some time ago, which is a great honor to the club. The club wishes Mrs. Crawford great success in the recital to be given by her June 2.

Of the many social functions given in honor of Mrs. W. E. Halsell, one of the most enjoyable was that given yesterday afternoon by Mesdames O. L. Rider, Ewing Halsell and A. L. Churchill at the home of Mrs. Rider on South Adair. The living room was prettily decorated with pink roses and peonies, while in the dining room a color scheme of pink and yellow was carried out, there being a profusion of yellow ribbon and chiffon very effectively arranged. In the center of the table was a basket of pink roses, the basket being decorated with large bows of yellow ribbon. The same color tones were used in the refreshments. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. E. B. Frayser made high score and was awarded a handsome brass candlestick. The guest prize, a brass score holder was presented Mrs. Halsell.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Haas. The topic for the afternoon was "Medical Missions in India." Mrs. J. I. Morning conducted the devotional exercises, which dealt with Christ's healing the sick and curing the blind. Mrs. E. N. Ratcliff read an interesting paper on "Giving to Missions," and many helpful suggestions were given.
